OR, EASTLAKE TELLS

Among the through passengers on the Siberia is a Dr. Eastlake, of Tokio, bury, Miss L. Bradbury, Commander J. who states that he is in the service of Japanese government contractors. The doctor said last night that he had gone to the United States to place a large loan for the Japanese Govern-

"I have also been to the United States," he added, "to make one of the classified Advertisements. largest single purchases of cotton yarns ever made by a government for war purposes. I bought 5,000,000 pounds of cotton yarns, which will be made up into underwear for Japanese soldiers in the Japanese government knitting factories. By the way, those same factories are turning out 10,000 dozen pairs of socks for the army every day.

"I have been connected with the Japanese Red Cross Society and was in the field for eight months, with Kuroki. War is terrible. I was wounded, by the way, once directly over the heart and once in the stomach, but I recovered as you see."

Ohio Society Formed.

About 50 Ohions attended the annual meeting of the Buckeye Club held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Atherton last evening and elected the following officers: President Rev. W. H. Rice: vice president, R. C. Brown; secretary and treasurer, J. K. Brown,

After the regular business of the evening had been transacted Mr. Robt. McCulloch of Los Angeles, gave a very interesting talk on early Ohio, which was followed by a reading from Mc-Guffey's sixth reader, which was used in Ohio schools years ago. A highly entertaining musical program came next, to which Mr. Stanley Livingstone and Miss Byington contributed. After refreshments and a vote of thanks to the hostess, the meeting adjourned to meet at the residence of Dr and Mrs. Whitney in May.
